Masterclasses

From June, 30th to July, 5th 2025, the Conservatoire de Musique de Genève will be opening its doors to talented young musicians aged between 14 and 20 for unforgettable master classes featuring great teaching artists:

Jacques Rouvier, piano

Vadim Repin, violin

Ivan Monighetti, cello

Sébastien Jacot, flute

Franklin Cohen, clarinet

A week of musical excellence that offers three 75-minute public classes and two concerts where participants will be playing in the legendary Franz Liszt concert hall. An immersive experience in a renovated and inspiring setting, at the heart of Geneva, a city with long artistic tradition.

Admissions

- Online registration until March, 10th 2025 on cmg.ch
- Submission of a recent video (less than a year old) of no more than 30 minutes, presenting three works of different period and style, via YouTube link
- Results of the selection process available by April, 15th 2025

Tuition

CHF 500 (travel and accommodation expenses to be paid by participants, host families subject to availability).
